Most Guest Ranches provide full meals as well as lodging. Rooms may be available without meals, if desired. Ask for permission before bringing pets. Some facilities operate only seasonally. Not all can process credit cards. Most facilities either provide guide services or can make arrangements. Peak visitor season is in the summer, June-August, advanced reservations strongly recommended. Some guest ranches offer off-season rates during May and September/October. Note that Big Sandy Lodge and DC Bar Guest Ranch do not have electricity and use generators in their lodges. More information is available from the Sublette County Chamber of Commerce, www.sublettechamber.com, and on the VisitSubletteCounty.com tourism web site.
